In Tioga district there is snow enough and to spare; quite enough for another winter, even if no more falls. Meanwhile work is progressing in the Great Sierra.

A larger number of Eastern commercial travelers are on this coast at present than ever known before. The East is making a great struggle for the trade of the interior.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The President has paid the Hon. R. M. Daggett a high compliment in nominating him Minister to the Hawaiian Islands. Of his confirmation by the United States Senate there can be no doubt. Mr. Daggett will be an able representative and faithfully perform the duties of his office. His acceptance of the mission will be somewhat of a surprise to his friends, from the fact that he had announced himself as a candidate for Governor. His friends would have given him a hearty support for that position and will feel disappointed to learn that he has concluded to retire from the contest.

In May the national debt was reduced $10,275,000, and for the last eleven months $140,000,000. The interest-bearing debt at this rate will be taken up in less than eight years.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

Trouble in the Democratic Party.

WASHINGTON, June 15.

There seems to be a great deal of Democratic dissatisfaction with their Congressional campaign command. The opinion expressed by prominent Democrats is that it is not only useless, but positively harmful to the interests of the party. The Committee itself, it is believed, is sadly complicated. Their methods appear as badly mixed as does its organization. It was first arranged with General Rosecrans as chairman, but it was very soon found that Rosecrans was years behind in the management of political campaigns. One of his plans is said to have been to offset contributions made to the Republican treasury from employees, by a popular ten cent Democratic subscription—a sort of "Betty-and-the-baby" fund. His management of the campaign was effectually settled from the date of this proposition. It was, however, a delicate matter to supersede him without giving offense to his friends, and his making a breach in the party ranks, as there is a large class in the Democratic party whose ideal of a party leader is embodied in Rosecrans. This difficulty was gotten over by the creation of a Board of Control, which should practically manage the campaign. At the head of this Board was placed Roswell P. Flower, of New York, the man who defeated young Astor for Congress, who, on coming here, worked himself into prominence by a series of dinners given to his fellow Congressmen. Then a new branch of the committee was formed to include certain wealthy outsiders and, contrary to usual custom, a member of the House was made Secretary of the committee. Dissatisfaction with the organization and methods of the committee, has been growing ever since, and the Democratic feature in Oregon, which is unreasonably enough laid at the door of the committee, has helped to stimulate the growth of this dissatisfaction as an instance of ill advised methods of the committee. During the Oregon campaign and election, Rosecrans, chairman of the committee, was busily occupied with a sprained ankle, and his own canvas for a re-nomination. After the fight in Oregon Senator Slater of that State made a statement to the effect that the Democrats had received no aid from abroad, except a few documents on the Chinese question.

The Windom Committee.

WASHINGTON, June 15.

The Windom Committee resumed session yesterday. Buell, editor of the Critic, appeared and read a statement, in which he undertook to show that his former testimony had been incorrectly reported. He also asserted, distinctly, his belief that two of the newspaper correspondents, mentioned by him, were "on the make;" but in cross-examination by the Chairman, and Senators Hawley and Harrison, admitted this was simply his opinion, and that he had no knowledge of any facts that would justify such a charge, or of any person who claimed to have such knowledge personally. He had heard several suspicious expressions, and was willing to give the committee, privately, the names of some of the gentlemen who had made use of such expressions. Senator Hawley suggested, in view of the several witnesses, that he, having no personal knowledge on the subject, and his refusal to give names, that his statement was mere suspicion, and ought to be stricken out. The witness referred to his statement, in former testimony, that he desired to consult persons with whom he had conversed on the subject before giving their names to the committee and said he had since consulted two members of the House and they had disclaimed having personal knowledge of any improper acts on the part of the journalists in question and were unwilling to have their names used in the matter. The third was out of town and would not return until next week. Winters asked that further examination would be postponed. Hawley, then with the consent of all the other members expressed emphatically his hope that if anybody in the world knew of any corrupt action on the part of any member of Congress or the press in connection with the matter under investigation, he would come forward and state it or hold his peace. As it was the desire of the committee to make the investigation as thoroughly as possible.

Trescott's Mission.

WASHINGTON, June 14.

W. H. Trescott testified to-day that his mission was to bring the warring States of Chili, Peru and Bolivia together, and if possible, make peace. He knew nothing of the Shippert correspondence; never saw him but once; knew nothing of the United States Minister being corrupted by the Credit Industrial or other company; never saw anything showing that Harbut had been corruptly influenced; the Chilean Foreign Secretary said that the Chilean Government had no charge whatever against Harbut. Answering Belmont, he said the Credit Industrial had the only plan which seemed feasible to pay the war indemnity. He had communicated with nobody on this matter except Robert Randall, who first wrote him, but he refused to discuss whether Blaine or Randall was right in his testimony. Randall thought Blaine had taken part against his (Randall's) company; in point of fact, the question had never been even considered. He refused to answer questions conflicting with his duty to the President and the Secretary of State.

Belmont—I want to know whether Mr. Trescott drafted this dispatch of June 15, because I think that in that case he would perfectly well understand it.

Belmont remarked he had understood Trescott to say he did not recollect, and he thought that showed it. I am waiting for Trescott to say whether he did draft the dispatch.

Trescott—I am inclined to think I did, but would not like to answer positively without looking over the dispatch. But I ask whether that is a fair question to put to me? If I was asked to draft a dispatch, is that not a matter between the Secretary and me? And is not the dispatch his?

Belmont—A dispatch of the State Department is a public letter.

Trescott—Yes, but the writing of it is not a public matter. After some further discussion on this point Belmont asked for copies of Trescott's letters to Randall. Trescott submitted that Belmont had no right to call for them, and the Chairman suggested that the question might go over for the present. After some further questioning by Belmont, nothing important being elicited, Trescott was excused for the present.

Garibaldi's Monument.

WASHINGTON, June 15.

The Garibaldi Monument Association had a memorial meeting last evening. Representatives Kasson delivered the eulogy. Letters of regret at absence were received from President Arthur, ex-Secretary Blaine, Col. Ingersoll and others. The President's letter said: "Although unable to show by his presence his hearty sympathy in this monument to the honor of so illustrious a soldier and patriot, it is gratifying to know his fame is to be perpetuated here in enduring form." Blaine's letter contained the following: "I am sure you will find as warm an admiration for the chivalric old soldier on this side of the water as in the land of his nativity, for whose liberties and whose regeneration he has done so much. I will gladly cooperate in the movement to the honor of his name by erecting an appropriate monument on American soil."

Extensive Forest Fires.

MILWAUKEE, June 15.

A special from the region of the forest fires in Wisconsin, to the Republican, states that at least 30 million feet of standing pine, has been destroyed in Pike River county, and the fire still raging in the region of the northwestern portion of Wisconsin and peninsula of Michigan. Reports from the line of the Wisconsin Central road state, that rain last night has checked the fire somewhat, but it is doubtful if it is extinguished. The latest reports from Nielsville, the central portion of the State, and where the most serious fires were, state that heavy rain has extinguished the fires and, all danger is past, but even an approximate loss cannot be determined.

BOSTON, June 15.

In the 2:26 class, Prospect Maid won the first heat in 2:33½. Maid Queen second and third in 2:22½, 2:23½. Early Rose was sold to John Shepard, of Boston, as a mate for Mill Boy for $12,000.

A Lie Out.

CHICAGO, June 14.

The Chicago papers this morning contained specials purporting to give an interview with General Rosecrans regarding the recently published letters of General Garfield to Secretary Chase. In these specials the General is reported as saying: "But one year ago, when I attended the exercises at West Point, General Anson Stager told me that he was one of the four persons present at the Louisville interview with Stanton, and that what occurred there was just the reverse of what was stated by General Garfield. I believed Stager because I would place his word against that of Garfield." The dispatch being shown to General Anson Stager this afternoon, that gentleman replied that he did not remember to have met General Rosecrans in years; that he never had any conversation with General Rosecrans at West Point or elsewhere as he detailed in the special dispatch; that until the publication of the purported interview he was not aware that General Rosecrans attended the West Point Exercises last Summer, and that it is not in fact true that he told General Rosecrans or any one else that what occurred at the Louisville meeting with Stanton was the reverse of what was stated by General Garfield.

Guiteau's Last Request.

WASHINGTON, June 14.

Guiteau, at his last interview with Reed, exacted a promise that Reed would call on the President and urge a commutation of his sentence. He instructed Reed to shake his fist in the President's face and demand protection for him as God's man who saved the country and made Arthur President. Reed's last appeal for Guiteau has been placed in the hands of Justice Bradley, of the United States Supreme Court. It is practically the same as that made before Justice Gray and refused by him.

Maine Candidates.

WASHINGTON, June 14.

The nominations of Boutelle and Milliken, for Congressmen-at-Large in Maine, are not looked upon as very strong. Boutelle was defeated by Ladd (Greenbacker) in the last race, by a majority of 850, and Milliken was trounced by Murch (Greenbacker) by 1,000 votes. Yet, if Blaine goes into the canvass, it is hoped it may result favorably.

Davitt's Reception.

NEW YORK, June 15.

The Irish National Land League, feeling that a citizens' committee should have anticipated them in preparing for the reception of Michael Davitt, in the Academy of Music, propose, if not given control of that meeting, to give another reception to Davitt in the name of the league. A minority of the league, at their meeting last night, contended that the parsimony of the league made a citizens' committee a necessity.

Annual Dinner.

BOSTON, June 15.

The New Hampshire Club had their annual dinner at the Revere House yesterday. There were 260 gentlemen present. Among the prominent guests of the club, were the Secretary of the Navy, Senator Frye, Collector Worthington and General N. P. Banks, all of whom spoke on national affairs. After an hour spent in dining and social intercourse the chairman introduced, with a brief and complimentary speech, the Secretary of the Navy, Wm. E. Chandler, who spoke at some length on the wretched condition of the U. S. Navy.

Richards, Mormon Delegates from the Utah Constitutional Convention, passed through Omaha to-day, en route to Washington, to present the Constitution of Utah as a State to Congress and ask for its admission. They will remain, if necessary, at Washington until Congress adjourns. The Constitution provides a republican form of government and does not touch the question of Mormonism.

"Our Goblins," the best musical and farcical company ever in this State will appear at the Nevada Theater Saturday evening.

The military company have made arrangements with Colonel Stevenson to occupy the pavilion as an armory. The room is large and will make one of the best armories in the State.

Tickets to the Turn-Verein picnic at Carson next Sunday are going off rapidly. This being the first picnic of the season it will be well attended and enjoyed. Treadway's Park is a beautiful place and the Carson people always make it pleasant for strangers, so buy a ticket and go.

Fell Down.

Hub Parker, one of the crack pigeon shots of the coast, fell down badly in the contest between the Cosmopolitan and California clubs of San Francisco on Sunday, killing only seven birds. This is the poorest score Parker has ever made in a public match.

Ex-Convicts Arrested.

A couple of ex-convicts, Burk and Graham, have been arrested by Sheriff Swift, at Carson, for stealing cigars. The proof against them is positive. Graham was pardoned by the Board last Fall and Burk has already served two terms of imprisonment.

Prison Management.

"Democrat" treats the readers of the Silver State to another column and a half of Carson gossip. He gives the GAZETTE the following notice: "You doubtless noticed the GAZETTE's effort to defend the Prison management. I presume the youthful stalwart of that paper thought it his duty to say something in justification of the man who kept him so long in office, to the exclusion of Democrats not his inferior in any particular." The GAZETTE will defend or criticize, as the case demands, the act of any public officer when occasion requires. Knowing Major Garrard to be a gentleman thoroughly honest, knowing that his management of prison affairs has been economical, and that he has made an efficient officer, the GAZETTE, as a public servant, felt called upon to dispel any unfavorable impression the slurs cast by said correspondent may have left upon the minds of tax-payers, regardless of personal friendship. When a servant of the people fails to do his duty, the GAZETTE, in justice to taxpayers, will most certainly point out his wrongs; but on the other hand, when an officer who has been faithful, competent and honest, is unjustly assailed, he will be given due credit and defended against unjust charges.

A Boston Female.

A young lady of doubtful age, supposed to have hailed from Boston, and a passenger on the west-bound overland last night, jumped out of the sleeper and made a rush for the Depot Hotel dining-room that would have made a Washoe Indian squaw blush with shame. She dropped into a chair and gobbled up a chunk of bread about the size of her foot and gulped it down at one swallow. She was one of the kind that would have made four bites of a strawberry if she had had one and knew that anyone was looking at her. After satisfying her ravenous appetite, she left the table, walked out on the platform and put on more aesthetic airs than a country stud-horse. It is quite interesting to watch the Bostonians when they arrive here. Some of them make for a saloon the first thing, while others gobble up more of Chamberlain's grub for 75 cents than six hardy wood-choppers would in two meals. They go for beans like Pat Kelly's ducks for corn.

Lightening in a Milk-House.

The Silver State says: During the heavy storm which prevailed in these parts Sunday, a streak of lightning struck the milk-house at Trousdale's ranch, about four miles below town, and entirely demolished it—in fact, wiped it out of existence. An immense pile of rubbish, consisting of adobe, thatch and used-up milk pans, etc., now marks the spot where once stood the house. We believe this to be the first case of the kind ever happening in Humboldt county. The milk-house was situated about 30 yards from the dwelling house, where the family were at dinner, when the shock occurred, and the effect of the shock, as described by Atty Trousdale, was almost paralyzing.

A Silver Plant in the Truckee.

The San Francisco Chronicle of June 14th says: Recently while a wagon was crossing a tributary of the Truckee river, the bridge gave way, and the vehicle was precipitated into the water. The driver and horses were saved, but the wagon and its contents, including a lot of silverware, valued at $800, en route from the Baldwin hotel of this city to the Tallac House on Lake Tahoe, Nev., were lost in the depths of the restless river. The silver service was intended for the dining-room of the Tallac, and was owned by E. J. Baldwin.

School For Girls.

The examinations in Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls will begin Friday 16th inst. and continue until Wednesday 21st inst. at noon. The commencement exercises will be held on Wednesday afternoon beginning at 1:30 p. m. The seventeenth rehearsal of the Department of Music will be given Wednesday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. All friends and patrons of the school are invited to attend these exercises, especially on Wednesday the 21st.

Arrangement For Target Shooting. The following arrangements have been made relative to the target shooting at the Turn Verein picnic at Carson Sunday: There will be teams of ten from each company, ten shots each man, distance 200 yards, all disputed shots to be settled by judges at the time of dispute; any military gun, open sight and six-pound pull to be used, Creedmoor rules to govern. The prize will be $100 in gold coin.

Notice.

Friends of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School will remember that next Sabbath is "Children's Day," and all are requested to meet at the church next Saturday at 7 o'clock p. m., to decorate the church. Please bring all the flowers you can favor us with. G. W. De La MATTE, Pastor.

Special Rates.

The C. P. R. R. company issues round tickets, good until September 1st, from San Francisco to Truckee, to Tahoe City, to the Tallac House, to Glenbrook, Carson, Virginia City, Reno and back to San Francisco for the sum of $30.

Effect of Fright on a Horse.

The Bodie Free Press says Superintendent J. C. Kemp, of the Great Sierra mine, Tioga District, says that last winter when the snowslide occurred which carried away the company's boarding house and came so nearly killing K. W. Woolard and others, a horse was carried off some distance and buried under ten or fifteen feet of snow. The horse, after twenty-four hours of imprisonment, was found flat on his back and feet up, but alive. As soon as relieved he commenced to eat barley. Several notable changes have been observed in the animal since this occurrence. Before it he had a very crooked neck but ever since it has been perfectly straight. Before it he was a very lazy horse, and paid little or no attention to the whip. Now, however, he is continually on the alert, and the slightest noise behind him will excite him so that he will almost tear his harness off in his efforts. He seems, in fact, to have received such a fright from the affair that he will never fully recover from it.

Nevada Theater.

Of Mitchell's Pleasure Party the New York Herald of Monday, says: "Our Goblins" reappeared last evening as brilliant, sparkling and funny as ever. Clothed with new adornments and aided by some additional scenery this side-splitting play set the audience "in a roar" from the rise of the curtain at the beginning, until the gay spirits embodying it had disappeared at the end of the third act. It is without doubt one of the most laughable productions ever put upon the stage, and to those who desire an evening's genuine mirth, nothing can be more pleasing." From the favorable notices this troupe have received from the press, wherever they have appeared, there can be no question as to their real worth. Seats are going off fast, and they are sure to have a full house. Engage seats early.

Truckee Items.

[From the Republican of June 14.] A. J. Bayley has opened the Grand Central Hotel at Tahoe for the season, yesterday.

Moses Staples was hit in the head with an iron crowbar at Lake Tahoe last Saturday with such violence as to render him insensible for several hours. Some river drivers this morning found a large barrel in the Truckee Lumber Company's dam above town. It was taken out and at once identified as a portion of the wagon load of freight which was dumped into Donner creek by the breaking down of the bridge several days ago.

Mrs. A. E. Parker has just returned to Truckee from Grass Valley and Nevada City. In each of these towns she instituted a Council of the Order of Chosen Friends.

Unusually large quantities of trout are caught at Lake Tahoe at present, and large shipments are made below every evening by express.

With one or two exceptions all the dairymen have arrived from below with their stock and commenced their season's work. The feed in the little valleys of the mountains is splendid.

An immense amount of freight is now being received at the Truckee depot. The roads to Tahoe, Sierra Valley, Eureka Mills and Jamison City have only within the past week or so become in good condition, and the merchants and millmen at these places are getting in their supplies, which in some cases had run rather low. The crowd of teams around the depot every morning, reminds one of the days of '49.

Blacksmithing.

W. J. Luke has been a resident of Reno for years and has been doing a good blacksmithing and wagon business all the time. He is too well-known to require any extended notice. In another column of the GAZETTE, however, he speaks for himself. He is better prepared than ever before to do first-class work at his shop. Carriage and wagon work in all branches from the lightest buggy to the mammoth prairie schooner. In fact, all kinds of work usually done in a first-class shop is turned out by Luke.

Two Hearts that Beat as One.

The wedding of M. M. Gillespie and Miss Christie Finlayson, last evening, was quite largely attended. They were the recipients of several valuable and useful presents. After the ceremony the Reno brass band gave them a serenade. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie left on the train last night for Tahoe, where they spend several days.

The Weather.

The weather for the last ten days has been unlike anything ever before seen in this part of the State, hardly a day passing without a shower accompanied by unusual electrical activity. Governor Adams' "Abrogals" are of the opinion that white men, through the agency of the churches and Nasby's thermometer, are responsible for this remarkable change.

Crickets at Mill City.

Peter Woolcock informs the Silver State that crickets have commenced harvesting the crops in the vicinity of Mill City. He also says that Judge Heydenfels and a party of mining experts were expected at Mill City with a view to examining the mines of Star District.

Another Death.
John Beargo, one of the men injured by the explosion in the Union drift, died Wednesday morning at 2:30 o'clock, and was buried this afternoon. He was a native of Denmark, aged 31 years. He leaves a mother and sister. He was the chief if not the sole support of his mother (a widow) and his sister, and his death will fall heavily in their home.

Painful Accident.
Geo. G. Burns, while engaged in taking down an old boarding house on the line of the N. & O. railroad yesterday, was hit in the right eye by a falling board cutting an ugly looking gash in the lid. The wound is very painful but with good care he will save his eye.

BELL TONGUE SYRUP,

An Inestimable Benefit to

UNCLE BEN JOS

CREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PA ACEA.

UNCLE BEN JOS was born in Boston, in 1800. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1814 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same at a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle J., as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part lops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle J. named it the Bell Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Nero." It is a wonderful cure of lung diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by
